To all addressed parties

I recently wrote to several members of the Canadian government and public service sector of Canada. I indicated that the Crown in Canada was facilitating treason, which it is, however, I was still quite confused about how particular clandestine orders were actually operating in Canada.

I'm attempting to be clear with a correction that the Masonic fraternity and the Roman Catholic Church are inherently opposed to one another and are in no way related to one another. When I last spoke to the matter of clandestine orders infiltrating the Canadian government, I was confusing the Masonic Knights Templar degree of Malta with the Catholic order of Malta. I most sincerely apologize for any confusion that this may have caused the addressed parties.

I also feel that I was being vague and somewhat inaccurate by making the statement that Queen Elizabeth II is not the Crown. Although, technically, Elizabeth Windsor is the Crown, there are other technicalities involved whereby the Crown can't make decisions without the advice and consent of other parties. To me, this means that the Crown is controlled by entities beyond that of Elizabeth Windsor, like a shadow government. The Canada.ca website informs us that;

"In today's constitutional monarchy, Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II is Queen of Canada and Canada's Head of State. She is the personal embodiment of the Crown in Canada.

In Canada's system of government, the power to govern is vested in the Crown but is entrusted to the government to exercise on behalf and in the interest of the people. The Crown reminds the government of the day that the source of the power to govern rests elsewhere and that it is only given to them for a limited duration."

<https://www.canada.ca/en/canadian-heritage/services/crown-canada/about.html>

Those statements made about the Crown do seem to separate the Crown from Elizabeth Windsor and further informs the people of Canada, in a very threatening way, that their sovereignty has been usurped by the Crown. But what or who is the Crown, exactly? That's what I've been attempting to nail down in my research and still, a solid answer eludes me.

The people of Canada have to seriously inquire into the status of the Crown - who or what is it? How does it get its authority to govern? Why is the Crown, itself, so obscure?

Wikipedia informs us that Queen Elizabeth II is the natural person and the Crown is the legal person of Elizabeth Windsor.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/The\_Crown

Yet, the Supreme Court of Canada says, in an unbelievably arrogant way, that legal vs. natural persons is considered to be pseudo-law to which it refuses to respond.

<https://www.canlii.org/en/commentary/doc/2020CanLIIDocs498#!fragment//BQCwhgziBcwMYgK4DsDWszlQewE4BUBTADwBdoByCgSgBplTCIBFRQ3AT0otokLC4EbDtyp8BQkAGU8pAELcASgFEAMioBqAQQByAYRW1SYAEbRS2ONWpA>

So which is it, I wonder? Is the Crown an illegitimate entity or is the SCC incorrectly interpreting pseudo-law and thereby subsequently oppressing the rights of the people of Canada?

At any rate, I believe that I was missing a key piece of information as I performed the research that led to my last communication to the addressed parties. I didn't understand that the social persecution and political repression of the people of Canada was religiously oriented. Once I understood that the people who are behind the system of nobility and these varying clandestine entities that act as shadow governments in Canada, were claimants of biblical lineage, I gained far more clarity about how and why the out of control corruption is actually operating in the world..

I didn't yet understand the history of the actual development of North America and how the presbyterians and other radical protestants came to America, as rebels from the law, to start plantations and the system of slavery so that they could build a nation, rivalling the European powers that they so adamantly oppose. I wasn't yet aware that it's biblical bloodlines vying for power through the system of so-called nobility while using clandestine orders as shadow governments to control legal world governments. I guess I was refusing to accept the notion that the United States of America is and always has been trying to take over Canada and the world.

I was failing to acknowledge that the people who are facilitating global corruption, are warring among each other for their place in the hierarchy of the new world order that they're collectively bringing about in the name of Yahweh. Now, I consider that perhaps these bible tribes aren't warring, afterall, but working together, instead, to accomplish an end goal. Whatever the case, it's difficult to put the actual history together when fraternities like Freemasonry claim to be neither political or religious but, in the end, that's all that their secret mission has ever been truly about.

Freemasonry has used the esoteric aspect as a cover and as a reason to explain its existence but even that seems to be a scam as many of the Freemasons that I encounter seem completely ignorant to the grace of salvation and remain obviously unenlightened. As far as I can tell, the masonic institution is a grand deception and an epic fraud that has so profoundly misled the people of Canada about its primary objectives.

The Masons and Shriners have been entrusted to run children's hospitals and charities with next to no public accountability for years. I don't get how the public can be so blind to these strange men and their weird rituals working around children with no questions asked. When children get hurt, it gets covered up. It's a sick cycle that's coming to end real quick here in Canada. Enough is enough, damn it all!

And, at the same time, the Roman Catholic Church, an equally criminal institution, operating in Canada, doing all of the harm that it does, and again, with hardly any accountability. It's got to stop!.

As far as churches go, it seems that the protestant churches have managed, for the most part, to keep themselves out of the public eye for the role they played in the actual history of the development of the North American continent and ensuing campaigns of genocide, crimes against humanity religious tyranny and political repression. The people of Canada will soon understand that so many of the wars on this planet and subsequent continuous human suffering have been occurring throughout human history because biblical tyrants believe that they are the 'chosen people' of yahweh, a murderous, hateful god, establishing his kingdom here on earth.

While the Roman Catholic Church and the Protestant churches are inherently opposed to one another, both are criminal organizations in their own right and so are the clandestine orders attached to them. For starters, both entities purport the Abrahmic religions, inherent racism, sexism and classism which lead to serious human rights concerns. Beyond that, these entities operate within the system of secret, alleged nobility, discriminating against world inhabitants who are not of the Israelite bloodline or heritage.

According to the Canadian system of human rights, these organizations can not exist, much less operate in Canada, especially on the taxpayer dime and with such absent public oversight and accountability for clandestine agents. These organizations stand in opposition of the established laws and the human rights code of Canada and the subsequent human rights codes of the various provinces and territories. I've currently raised this matter in a current application that I have before the Ontario Human Rights Tribunal. Instead of doing the right things, the HRTTO is actually attempting to dispose of the application. The HRTTO is being malicious and vexatious. Still, the paper trail will be quite telling in that particular matter.

The tyranny that the people of Canada are experiencing at at this time stems from religious discrimination, resulting in oppression and political repression. The Roman Catholic Church and its various orders such as the Sovereign Military Order of Malta, orders of St. John, and so on are undeniably oppressing the people of Canada at this time. On the other hand, the Protestant church and its various orders, such as the Orange order, the fraternity of Freemasonry, and what have you, are just as complicit in the oppression of the Canadian people.

Then we have groups like the United Empire Loyalists who once fought for the defense of Canada against the Americans but, alas, it seems the U.E.L's took their perks, made their quaint lives and abandoned their original cause. Still, the U.E.L's seem to have clandestine influence over municipal governments in some ways, weaving in and through other orders at the same time.

The point is, whenever there's an elected government operating the way it should, some clandestine organization weasels its way in somehow to corrupt it. We have an election process for a reason and to have clandestine organizations constantly usurping that system is a real problem. When people are elected to positions of trust and power, or governed by a code of ethics in their professional duties, they must not act with a conflict of interest, which far too many of them are. It's up to the people of Canada to weed out these clandestine agents and to hold their feet to fire, so to speak, by enforcing codes of ethics/conduct and conflict of interest legislation for professional service providers and public servants. .

A professional service provider, bound to a code of ethics, can not be in service to a criminal organization and uphold their code of ethics/conduct at the same time. In the same way, as far as oaths and obligations go, a person can not serve two masters. Therefore, it's up to the people of Canada to determine which master their public servants and ethically bound professionals are actually in service to. .

When I last wrote to the addressed parties, I was incorrect in some of the assertions that I had made. I believe that I have cleared those matters up with this particular notice. Further, the reader can find subsequent clarification through the following link and subsequent related information, on the homepage of the Holisticus International website.

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1w9btIOa-Kdti76Cp1GQw2wZiUwKd7t2H/view?usp=sharing>

I didn't receive a response from any of the addressed parties when I sent former correspondence and I certainly don't expect one now. I understand that corrupt parties can't possibly respond to the truth. Still, it'd be nice to receive a response from any of the addressees should any one of them decide to act with one shred of integrity.

At any rate, I just wanted to update the public record, and make sure everyone's on the same page as the campaign to clean up the corruption in Canada continues to move forward.

I reported very serious allegations to the Integrity Commissioner of Canada, the Military Provost Marshal, the Judge Advocate General, the Directorate of Special Examinations and Inquiries, Health Canada and the Public Health Agency of Canada, the Federation of Canadian Municipalities, the Council of Canadian Premiers, the Canadian Bar Association, the Federation of Law Societies Canada, the Canadian Judicial Council, my own municipal council (Prince Edward County) and the Ontario Human Rights Tribunal.

Beyond the vexatious response I've received from the Human Rights Tribunal, not one of these parties responded to me.

It's just like when I informed the Ontario Provincial Police, the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, the Ontario Crown Attorney, the Ontario Attorney General, Todd Smith - Provincial Minister and MPP for Bay of Quinte, that a criminal network was operating in my hometown and that the network was responsible for child trafficking, serious child abuse and a cover up of such, and none of those parties responded to my serious allegations, either.

By not responding, those parties enabled William Sweet, the former Executive Director of the now defunct Prince Edward County Children's Aid Society, to beat the 20 criminal charges that he was rightfully facing for failing to protect children who were sexually abused in the foster care system on his watch. Inaction also thwarted a network of people who were in collusion with William Sweet to get away with their crimes, too. The courts ended up excusing William Sweet's crimes, claiming that he didn't know about the abuse until it was too late, which is an outright lie. Justice Stephen Hunter more or less praised William Sweet while justifying his criminal behavior. It was so disgusting!

At any rate, I know what it means when parties don't respond to serious allegations. I've been there and I've certainly done that, far too many times! Now that we're at the end of the line where with the most important agencies in Canada failing to respond to incredibly serious allegations of genocide, treason and crimes against humanity, religious persecution and political repression, I'd say Canada is in serious trouble as a country and the people of Canada, as a result, are in peril!

I feel that there is little recourse now but to respond at the local levels of government, removing corrupt agents, one by one. I personally plan to continue working with my community to restore good government and when all communities in Canada take this action, the effects will trickle up to the provincial and federal governments. Soon enough, the global pyramid will come crashing down as it gets disassembled, brick by brick, as community by community in Canada takes action against clandestine agents in their municipal governments.

At this point, I'll report my concerns now to the Public Safety Minister of Canada, the Integrity Commissioner for my municipality and my local police services board. From there, I'll continue with my initiatives to restore good government in my own community while implementing ways to keep the people of my community connected, protected and safe from religious persecution and resulting global tyranny that is now reaching into every community throughout Canada.

If the global tyrants think that they have Canada politically locked down, they can think again. No contract is valid when it's made in the absence of clean hands. None of the tyrants seeking to rule over Canada or its people are acting with clean hands. Anyone seeking equity must do equity and the government is not doing equity with the people of Canada, by any means. All contracts between the people of Canada or on behalf of the people of Canada and the lying, deceitful Crown are valid and this includes debt and any obligation to the tyrannical United Nations. Period!

In closing, I'd like to summarize that the tyranny that is being experienced in Canada stems from a biblical bloodline that claims to be the chosen people of yahweh. These yahweh lovers built themselves a system of nobility that they've been controlling most countries throughout the world through. Clandestine orders attached to this system of yahweh worship act as shadow governments. The system of nobility keeps the so-called elite on a privileged perch while they live off the blood, sweat and tears of those that they refer to as peasants or commoners.

It's through this system of nobility that the Abrahamic religions have dominated the whole planet and by which the deception that Jesus, the teacher and healer, warned about has finally surfaced in the world. These allegedly chosen people of yahweh believe that they have the right to judge mankind and to bring about a religious world order based on the covenants made between their bloodline and their god yahweh. I don't consent to the terms of those covenants and I don't think most of the world will either.

Once the people of Canada and of the world realize the religious control behind this global tyranny, the push back and adoration for Jesus and his teachings will become unstoppable. What will the tyrants do then? Murder us all as they did Jesus? I mean what's left for them to do at this point? The writing is on the wall that tyranny will only increase to the point where the execution of the people of the world will occur outright and in plain sight, according to the laws being established under the global government, in-line with the old testament covenants of the bible.

The people have no choice but to push back against the tyranny at this point, not only in Canada but throughout the world.

We've reached a point where the wheat is being separated from the chaff, so to speak. I caution public servants to act with integrity and to govern themselves accordingly as the corruption removal process continues to unfold throughout Canada.

Not receiving a reply to my last submission from any of the addressed parties is very concerning. It tells me that the parties are in collusion by failing to respond together, at the same time, to the same issues, which simply isn't acceptable. The parties have silently acquiesced to my allegations which should concern every person in Canada, from my perspective.

If there is no response to this particular correspondence within 15 days, the addressed parties will be considered to be in collusion, silently acquiescing to the allegations herein and subsequently accepting the statements made in the attached and previous notice from myself. Further, the parties will be considered to be an enemy to the people of Canada and announced to the people of Canada as such, over time, through formal public notices issued by Holisticus International.

With that said, hopefully the parties consider affording a dignified response to the incredibly serious accusations made herein and in previous correspondence.

Thank you for your time and consideration. .

Sincerely,
Brenda Everall
