AN OPEN LETTER TO:

Lise Betteridge

Former Registrar & CEO

Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers

I recently learned of your retirement from the Ontario College of Social Workers and Social Service Workers. I found it utterly disgusting that you chose to walk away from the mess that you were well aware of with regard to the unlawful practice of unregistered social work in Ontario.

I wrote to you beginning in 2016 and I laid out the problem with the unlawful practice of unregistered social work practices that you most certainly had the power to curtail. Instead of curtailing the unlawful practice, you issued an open letter speaking out against the practice of unlawful social work as a way to seemingly absolve yourself from the matter.

You refused to exercise section 54 of the Ontario Social Worker and Social Services Worker Act that could, would and should have curtailed the unlawful practice of unregistered social work by so-called child protection workers employed by Ontario child protection agencies.

In this way, it appears that you've caused intentional harm to members of the general public. YOU allowed Ontario's child protection workers to unjustifiably apprehend children from loving families and to further traffick them through the so-called child protection system where those same children are used for further profit by group homes, foster homes, the medical industry, police services, adoption agencies and youth and family courts with little, if any, transparency or accountability.

What you've facilitated and then walked away from is not acceptable by any measure! You owed the people of Ontario far more, especially considering how much you were paid and the level of trust granted to you by those very taxpayers!

From my perspective the people of Ontario need to know about this glaring assault to their rights and dignity as well as their subsequent right to civilly sue you in a personal capacity! I plan to inform the general public about the matter and to subsequently inform others that the right to sue you begins the moment that they know or ought to know about your outright deception and betrayal! You can and hopefully will be sued for the role that you've played in failing to uphold the mandate of the OCSWSSW, which is to

- 1) PROTECT PUBLIC INTEREST
- 2) REGULATE THE PRACTICE OF SOCIAL WORK
- 3) GOVERN ITS MEMBERS

https://www.ocswssw.org/annual_report_2019/en-college-mandate.php

The statute of limitations for the general public becomes extended if incapacitation resulted from the effects of anyone practicing or condoning the unlawful practice of unregistered social work in Ontario.

It most definitely appears, to me at least, that you've committed several potential torts that certainly aren't limited to professional negligence and the generation of intentional emotional distress subsequently causing a particular demographic in Ontario severe harm and a loss of the right to enjoy a decent quality of life. In this way you've become a sitting duck, so to speak, where the people of Ontario have every right to sue you in a personal capacity for everything you own!

Wait for it!

Most sincerely,
